

Traditional Insurance vs. Christian Health Share Programs: A Simple Comparison

A UHSM Christian health sharing program offers you an affordable alternative to traditional health insurance.

Medical care is expensive, and many families are looking for an alternative to costly health insurance premiums. Christian health sharing programs offer such an alternative, often at approximately half the cost of traditional health insurance.

The following chart details the main features of UHSM's Gold Program and compares them to the Gold Plans of two big-name insurance companies in the US: Blue Cross Blue Shield (BCBS) and Aetna.
